An Adamless Eve.

Some things about the holidays are quite unfair to madams. For instance, there's a Christmas eve. But where's her Christmas Adam?

The Great Barlow Minstrels.

One of the principal fun makers this season with the Great Barlow Minstrels, who appear at the Opera House, Thursday evening, is John Phillips, one of the delineators of the real oldtime negro on earth, as well as a finished, up-to-date performer of the modern school. Gifted with a world of spontaneous humor and a personality particularly adapted to the role he pursues, it would be hard to find as capable an artist who can at all times please all classes alike. Others are Chas. W. Milton, an old favorite and finished performer, with a budget of brand new lion motifs. Frank H. Tinney, a clever young comedian and musical specialist, Billy Burke, Ernest Van, and exceptionally good back and wing dancer, and Barney Redhead. The latest and best from the pen of the ring time and topical song writers will be found in the contributions of the above sextette.

Seabreeze Roads Are Good.

The Daily News was in error last week in stating the roads in Seabreeze are bad. C. P. Lund says the roads for the most part are in excellent condition.

Col. H. E. Dick, former manager of the Tampa Bay Hotel, and Dr. J. M. Munyon, it is reported, are contemplating the erection of a hotel at Palm Beach, to cost $200,000, while the Jacksonville Metropolis says that these parties have secured an option on the old St. James Hotel lot in Jacksonville and the indications point that they will erect a hotel there. If there is any dispute as to which place will have the hotel, let them come to Daytona and put up a palatial hostelry, and let them have it in readiness for a year hence.

DAYTONA AND ITS ATTRACTIONS.

DAYTONA is situated upon the west bank of the Halifax River at its widest expanse and midway between its source at Bulow Bay and its outlet at Mosquito Inlet. It is in latitude 29, seventy-four miles from St. Augustine and one mile from the Atlantic Ocean, and is acknowledged to be without a rival for beauty among the villages of the South. Its site is upon what is known as high hammock land that was crowned by nature with a most royal growth of majestic forest trees, and among these trees the town of today, with its beautiful cottages and well-graded walks and streets. The result is that all along the wide avenues that intersect the town are lovely live oak and water oaks and hickories, many of them draped with graceful festoons of the gray Spanish moss, that overarch the street and walks, and among these are interspersed tall tropical palmettos, mossy leaved magnolias, fragrant bays and coral-berried holly, and many other varieties, while in many places the wild grape, the trumpet vine and the angelopsis climb and cling among the branches forming shady bowers and adding grace and beauty.

The town lies parallel with the Halifax River, and extends for nearly two miles along the shore. The river is the delight of the angler and the yachtsman and forms one of the town's greatest attractions.

The main avenue that runs parallel with or intersects the river are of 100 feet wide, except Beach street, which is about sixty-five feet, but has a half-mile of open, beautiful water, flanking upon its eastern side, where the salt waves ebb and flow and along and across which comes the cooling, invigorating and health-giving breeze from off the wide Atlantic, which temper and render the Halifax climate one of the most perfect in the world. Daytona has many miles of excellent, shaded, macadamized and graded roads and streets, rendering it the Wheelman's Paradise and added to these, but a mile away are thirty miles of smooth, hard beach, that affords an unrivalled course for long distance cycling and driving or automobile racing. No town of equal size, North or South, unhampered by many wheelmen, and cycling is a favorite pastime with the tourists summer and winter.

The Beautiful Cottages that have been erected during the past years and are being built are rendering Daytona as famous for its fine homes as for its beautiful river, trees and avenues, and they are adding early to its attractions. Not the least of these attractions to those securing homes in the South, and ranking second only to health, beauty and perfection of climate, is the fact that its population is chiefly composed of cultivated and intelligent people, accustomed to the refinements of home and social life. Added to these features are good churches, good public and private schools, stores, hotels, laundry, meat markets, novelty works, an opera house, electric lights, street and house illumination, a telephone system, ice factory, city Water Works, and hot and cold baths, etc., and everything else can be secured that is necessary to make life comfortable. An important feature in the healthfulness of this town is the Water Supply which is derived from numerous flowing wells, of which there are probably 300 in the corporate limits. The town is secured by boring wells to the depth of from 80 to 120 feet, passing through several strata of rock, and this depth assures purity from all surface contamination. The water is slightly impregnated with magnesia and iron, and holds sulphur in the shape of gas, which soon passes away.

The Population of Daytona proper is about 1,800. Added to this is a suburban population on main shore and peninsula of about 1,000 at Kingston, Blake, Old Seabreeze or Goodall, Seabreeze and Silver Beach, which are properly a part of the town and population.

Daytona Beach lies one mile east of the town. It is approached by three good bridges over the river and well-graded avenues, and is the principal summer resort south of St. Augustine. It has more tourists during the summer than all other places south of that city combined, and is also becoming a favorite winter resort. The beach is wide, firm and smooth, by many considered the finest in the world, and the surf bathing is safe and excellent summer and winter. People who have tried Northern and Western summer resorts declare that there are none so perfect in comfort as Daytona beach.

Automobile Race Meet. The Florida East Coast Automobile Association conducts an annual race meet on the beach, which has now a universal reputation as the greatest automobile race course in the world. The Daytona-Ormond Beach is hard as macadam, and an ideal stretch of thirty or more miles without a break makes it the natural racing ground for America.

At low tide the beach is bare for 300 feet and neither carriage wheel, bicycle or pedestrian can make a hardly visible imprint on the smooth and well-packed sand. It is no uncommon sight to see sail-rigged bicyclists speeding with the velocity of the wind before a stiff breeze along the smooth beach, thus affording the most exhilarating sport known to man. Besides these, miles of hard-shelled, palm-fringed boulevards bring the lovers of the wheel and vehicles into direct
